

Rees,

Sewell,

Thomas,

Whiteley—7.

So it was determined in the negative.

Mr. Kennedy, then moved to amend the bill, by striking out the proviso attached to the 11th section, which is in these words.

‘Provided also, That the provisions of this act shall not be deemed applicable to such dispositions of personal property of small value, as shall be made by raffle or lot, and which shall not be intended an invasion of the lottery system.’

And the question was put, and determined in the negative.

The bill having been read throughout, was on motion of Mr. Heath ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Smith offered the following message, which was read.

By the Senate, March 2, 1829.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates

We propose with the concurrence of your honorable body to adopt as a joint rule of Legislative proceeding that no bill or resolution shall be allowed to originate in either house after the 4th instant during the present session.

By order,

Louis Gassaway, Clk.

Mr. Kennedy, moved to lay the said message on the table.

And the question was put, and determined in the negative.

Mr. Kennedy, then moved that the further consideration of said message be postponed until to-morrow,

And the question was put, and determined in the negative.

The said message was then read a second time.

Mr. Kennedy moved to amend the same by striking out the word ‘fourth’ for the purpose of inserting the word ‘five’ in lieu thereof.

And the question was put, and determined in the negative.

The question was then put, on the adoption of the message and it was determined in the affirmative, and the message was sent to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered a resolution authorising the Register of the Land Office for the Western Shore, to make out two fair plots of the officers and soldiers land Westward of Fort Cumberland.

Which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Thomas, Sewell and Kennedy.

Also, a bill entitled, a supplement to an act entitled, an act
